Big News at Way!

Greetings!

Welcome to our April 2017 Email Newsletter!

Spring is finally here, and the staff at Way Public Library are excited to present a new lineup of fun and educational programs. We are especially looking forward to the first annual Perrysburg and Maumee Walleye Fest. Way Public Library is joining in the fun by offering walleye-themed programs April 26-30. Check Way's website on April 5 for an entire list of all the "fishy" things happening at the library.

Please note that the library will be closed Sunday, April 16 for Easter.

Baker's Way

A Pan for All Seasons!

What's new at Baker's Way? We have a Bundt pan that makes six mini decorative cakes. And don't forget to be ready for your spring piano recitals. The grand piano cake pan is fun and very easy; all the plastic accessories are included to make your cake a show-stopper! Book Nook

WPLFF Installs Book Nook at Mercy Health Perrysburg Cancer Center

On March 9, 2017, Way Public Library Foundation & Friends donated approximately 150 books to the Mercy Health Perrysburg Cancer Center for use by patients while they are receiving treatments. The "Book Nook" is installed in the Infusion Waiting Room on the Center's second floor.

The collection is mostly adult fiction, but it contains nonfiction and children's/juvenile/young adult titles as well. Once a patient has finished a book it may be kept as a gift, passed along to someone else, returned to the Book Nook at the Cancer Center, or dropped off at Way Library.

Mercy Health and Way Public Library have been partners since 2012 with the goal of providing educational opportunities for families about health and wellness. Way is proud to host a monthly speakers' series featuring Mercy Health experts, as well as regular courses on managing diabetes and chronic illnesses.

Book Donations

We are more than happy to take those unwanted books off your hands! The books you donate to Way Public Library Foundation & Friends directly benefit the library. You may drop off your books at the Circulation Desk any time the library is open. More details about donating books may be found by clicking here or by calling 419-874-3135 ext. 351.

Volunteer of the Month

Meet Mary Jo Bailin

Mary Jo Bailin can often be seen coming and going at Way Public Library. She is an avid reader and regularly carries home a whole stack of books. But her visits to the library frequently have a secondary purpose. Mary Jo is one of our extraordinary volunteers who dedicates her many talents to helping with library projects and the day-to-day operations of this busy library. She enthusiastically volunteers at our book sales, which involves many hours of setting up and sorting before the sale begins. She is also a Book Buddy in our outreach program to home-bound Perrysburg residents. Mary Jo's home visits allow a senior citizen with limited mobility to once again experience the joys of reading. When asked to assist on other projects, such as shifting books, Mary Jo always willingly responds with a "yes!"

Mary Jo started volunteering at the library after retiring from teaching Special Education for 30 years with the Washington Local School District. She and her husband Rick have raised two daughters and are now enjoying being grandparents. In her free time, Mary Jo loves to garden, cook, travel, walk, and attend yoga classes. She likes to include a little antiques, too.

The staff of Way Library would like to thank Mary Jo for her dedication and significant contributions to the library. We are grateful she shares her time, talent, and enthusiasm to help make Way Library the center of the Perrysburg community!

As much as he'd love to sing the praises of his book (he is very vain), he wouldn't want you to hear about his brave 11-year-old heroes, Cass and Max-Ernest. Or about how a mysterious box of vials, the Symphony of Smells, sends them on the trail of a magician who has vanished under strange (and stinky) circumstances. And he certainly wouldn't want you to know about the hair-raising adventures that follow and the nefarious villains they face. You see, not only is the name of this book secret, the story inside is, too. For it concerns a secret. A Big Secret.
